Q3 Confidential Financial Audit & Board Report (Page 1)

1.0 Executive Financial Summary - Q3 Performance
For the third quarter (Q3), consolidated enterprise gross revenue reached $48,250,000, representing an 18.4% year-over-year increase compared to Q3 of the prior fiscal year ($40,750,000). Total Annual Recurring Revenue (ARR) closed at $192,800,000.

2.0 Profitability Margins & EBITDA
Adjusted EBITDA for the quarter was $12,740,000, yielding a strong EBITDA margin of 26.4%. Net dollar retention (NDR) across Tier-1 enterprise accounts reached 118.2%, driven primarily by expansion in AI analytics and security add-ons. Operating expenses (OpEx) were managed at $24,100,000, coming in 3.2% under forecast due to infrastructure optimizations.

Q3 Confidential Financial Audit & Board Report (Page 2)

3.0 Confidential Escrow & Project Falcon Acquisition Reserve
As approved by the Board of Directors, a dedicated reserve of $14,000,000 has been deposited into an interest-bearing escrow account with JPMorgan Chase. This capital is allocated specifically for the impending acquisition of Project Falcon (cloud security telemetry startup). Closing date is scheduled for December 15th, subject to regulatory clearance.

4.0 Free Cash Flow and Capital Expenditure
Free Cash Flow (FCF) for Q3 was $9,850,000, representing a 20.4% conversion rate from revenue. CapEx investments totaled $2,890,000, directed toward custom GPU server clusters for internal model inference.